First Chief Sounds Powers Abroad with View to Asking Recognition.

FURTHER ACTION NEAR

an-American Conference Expected to Take Up Mexico's Troubles Within Week.

Further action looking to the adjust-ment of Mexico's troubles doubtless will be taken by the Pan-American conference within a week.

Carranza's response to the peace overture is expected here today. That it will be a flat rejection of the proposal of the Pan-American conference is generally expected. Following the receipt of Carranza's reply, the Pan-American conference will reassemble and decide upon the next step to be taken toward Se pacification of Mexico. If the plan mapped out early in August is carried out to the letter, the United States and the six other repub-lies will take steps to prevent Carranza from getting arms and ammunition while the other factions are organizing with a view to the establishment of a provisional government.

Carranzistas in Washington still enter-tain the hope, despite the present purposes of the Pan-American conference, that the government headed by the first chief will ultimately be recognized by the United States and in turn by the other powers of the world.

It became known yesterday that Carranza is now sounding the European powers with a view to enlisting their support for the so-called constitutional overnment, Charles A. Douglas, Wash ington counsel for Carranza, had a long conference with the British Ambassador. It is understood that he was informed that Great Britain would be guided by the United States in its treatment of Mexican affairs. This is understood to be the attitude of the other European powers.

POLICY IN HAITI

U. S. Prepared to Enforce Its Financial Protectorate in Republic.

AMERICAN PLAN OPPOSED

Senate Shows Disposition to Throw Obstacles in Way of Washington's Program.

There is the highest possible authority for the statement that the United States will carry out its program to exercise financial protectorate over the republic of Haiti even though resistance should be offered by the Haitian government. The American officials are convinced that recent disorders have been prompted by professional revolutionists, who have been moved by personal interests. Accordingly, the United States is prepared to land in Haiti such force as may be necessary to assist the Haitians in reestablishing a stable government. The authorities in Washington are convinced that the American policy will have the support of the great mass of the Haitfan

Senate Opposes U. S. Plan. Advices from Port au Prince indicate that the Haitian senate is not in entire accord with the treaty proposed by the United States, under which this govern-ment proposes to take over Haitian af-fairs and administer them for a period of ten years. President Bartiguenave and his cabinet are in accord with the plan of the United States. The senate of the republic appears to be disposed to throw obstacles in the way of the Amer-ican program. While the State Department is not fully advised as to conditions the Haitian senate would impose, it is apparent that the legislative body looks with disfavor upon the appearance of the United States in the affairs of the republic. Should the senate refuse to agree to the proposed treaty the American naval forces commanded by Admiral Caperton will take over all the custom houses in Haiti and proceed to admin ister governmental agencies along lines iaid down in the instrument that is now the subject of negotiations between the United States and President Bartigue-

Robert Lansing, Secretary of State, made this brief statement yesterday rel-ative to the purposes of the United States in intervening in Haiti: "We have only one purpose-that is to help the Haitian people and prevent them from being exploited by irrespon-ible revolutionists. These are not-properly revolutions; they are unorganized enterprises which involve no question of principle, and they are ruining the coun While they are in progress people starving in the streets of Port au Prince because they cannot secure the supplies of food which abound in the country. Things have been going from bad to worse, and something must be done. The United States government has no purpose of aggression, and is en-tirely disinterested in promoting this protectorate." At present the United States is in charge of four of the ten custom houses in Haiti. Admiral Caperton will soon take possession of the others.
